Administration (SIRVA)

Nancy Routh Meyers, Turning Point Litigation, Greensboro, NC, for Petitioner.

Amanda Pasciuto, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On October 7, 2020, Donnie Puckett filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that, on September 29, 2019, she received an influenza (“flu”) vaccine in her right shoulder, and that she thereafter suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). Petition at 5. Petitioner further alleges that she suffered her injury for more than six months. Petition at 4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 15, 2022, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that “petitioner had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction in her right shoulder; her pain and reduced range of motion occurred within forty-eight hours of receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; her symptoms were limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality was identified to explain her initial symptoms.” Id. at 9. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner has met the statutory requirements by suffering her right SIRVA for more than six months and has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Vaccine Act. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
